DMV Collective Giving Network

The DMV Collective Network is a network of giving circles across the DC, Maryland, and Virginia region. Please find more information about what each giving circle funds and how to join as a member!

Anne Arundel Women Giving Together (AAWGT)
www.givingtogether.org | Contact: giving@givingtogether.org

Through collective philanthropy, the all-volunteer AAWGT invests in organizations that support women and families in Anne Arundel County (AAC), Maryland. They engage in grant-making, educating members and the community about issues impacting women and families in AAC as well as about collective philanthropy. With more than 360 women from ages 21 to over 95, who live or work in AAC, they have a variety of membership payment options. All have full voting privileges. Interested members can select from $175/year up to a lifetime membership.

Collective 365
www.collective365.org | Contact: collective365info@gmail.com

Collective 365 facilitates opportunities to learn about community needs through service engagement, educational and networking events in order to support the sustainability of communities of color through philanthropic giving. Their membership includes over 100+ people who reside anywhere in the U.S., with most from the DMV. Interested members can apply to join on their website.

Giving Together (GT)
www.giving-together.org | Contact: info@giving-together.org

GT creates a community of women who support nonprofits assisting women and families in need in the DMV area through grant making and community service. By offering ongoing volunteer and other assistance to their grantees they stay connected to these groups and the community. Members primarily reside in Montgomery County, DC and Northern Virginia. To join or make a donation go to the GT website. A reduced membership rate is offered for women aged 45 and under.

Immigrant Giving Circle
https://www.immigrantgivingcircle.org/home | Contact: info@immigrantgivingcircle.org

At the Immigrant Giving Circle, they believe in the power of collective philanthropy. They are a vibrant community of individuals and businesses coming together to positively impact the lives of immigrants in the DMV area. As a component fund of the Community Foundation for Loudoun and Northern Fauquier Counties, their mission is to address the immigrant community's critical needs through strategic grants to qualified nonprofit organizations. Interested members can contact them to join.

Impact100 DC
https://impact100dc.org/ | Contact: President@Impact100DC.org

Impact100 DC is an all-volunteer women's philanthropic community dedicated to improving lives in the greater Washington, DC area by collectively funding high-impact grants to local nonprofit organizations. They create and sustain a diverse community of dynamic women committed to building bridges, empowering them as philanthropists and leaders to address unmet needs in the region, prioritizing those that result from systemic racism and structural inequity. Interested members can donate $1k on their website, with shared memberships available.

Many Hands
https://manyhandsdc.org/ | Contact: info@manyhandsdc.org

Many Hands leverages the power of collective giving to support nonprofits serving and empowering Washington, DC area women, children, and families in socioeconomic need. With approximately 280 members, primarily women between the ages of 30-80 who reside in the DMV, membership is open to all. Interested members can donate on their website, with different membership levels available between $300-$1k.

Next Gen Giving Circle (NGGC)
https://www.nextgengivingcircle.org/ | Contact: info@nextgengivingcircle.org

Founded in 2019, NGGC's mission is to cultivate the next generation of philanthropists in the Greater Washington region and invest in our local communities. They are built on the idea that everyone can and should participate in philanthropy. Interested members can visit their website to join, with different membership levels available.

The Associated's Jewish Women's Giving Foundation
https://associated.org/getinvolved/women/jwgf/ | Contact: vsheinker@associated.org

The Jewish Women's Giving Foundation (JWGF) is a program of The Associated. Guided by Jewish values and through a gender lens, JWGF is a giving circle that promotes lasting social change by transforming the lives of self-identified women and girls. As part of their collaborative grantmaking process, they educate and empower their members to be strategic decision makers and philanthropists. Jewish women in the Baltimore Metro Area are invited to learn more and join.

Women's Giving Circle of Howard County
https://www.womensgivingcircle.org/ | Contact: wgcexecutivedirector@wgchowardcounty.org
